

China regulator relaxes exit rules for PE, VC firms

Written by
Friday, 09 June 2017 13:38 -

There are no translations available.

AVCJ

The China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC) has eased rules for private equity and venture capital firms by reducing their post-IPO lock-up period in an A-share listed companies from three years to one year.

Read Full Article